- (a) Dishonesty, fraud, incompetency or gross negligence in performing administrative duties.
- (b) Gross immorality or proselytizing religious views on patients without their consent.
- (c) Other abuses of official responsibilities, which may include intimidating or neglecting patients.

36-446.01. Licensure or certification requirements

- A. A nursing care institution shall not operate in this state except under the supervision of an administrator licensed pursuant to this article.
- B. An assisted living facility shall not operate in this state except under the supervision of a manager certified pursuant to this article.

C. It is unlawful for any person who does not have a license or certificate, or whose license or certificate has lapsed or has been suspended or revoked, to practice or offer to practice skilled nursing facility administration or assisted living facility management or use any title, sign, card or device indicating that such person is an administrator or manager.

36-446.02. Board of examiners; terms; meetings; quorum; effect of vacancies; compensation

A. The board of examiners of nursing care institution administrators and assisted living facility managers is established consisting of eleven members appointed by the governor.

B. The board shall include:

1. One administrator who holds an active license issued pursuant to this article or who is retired.
2. One assisted living facility manager who holds an active license issued pursuant to this article or who is retired.
3. One administrator of a nonprofit or faith-based skilled nursing facility who either holds an active license issued pursuant to this article or who is retired.
4. One administrator of a proprietary skilled nursing facility who either holds an active license issued pursuant to this article or who is retired.
5. Two managers of an assisted living center who either hold an active license issued pursuant to this article or who are retired.
6. One manager of an assisted living home who either holds an active license issued pursuant to this article or who is retired.
7. One public member who represents an organization that advocates for the elderly.
8. One person who is a family member of a resident or a person who was a resident in the previous three years in either a skilled nursing facility or an assisted living facility at the time the person is appointed to the board.
9. One person who is a current or former resident of a skilled nursing facility or an assisted living facility.
10. One public member who represents an organization that advocates for individuals with Alzheimer's disease, dementia or other related neurocognitive diseases or disorders.

C. The board may not have more than three board members who are appointed pursuant to subsection B, paragraphs 1 through 6 of this section and who are retired. Each board member specified in subsection B, paragraphs 1 through 6 of this section who is retired must have had an active license issued pursuant to this article within the previous two years at the time of appointment to the board and may not have had any disciplinary action taken against the person's license or had a license issued pursuant to this article revoked.

D. Board members who are not affiliated with a nursing care institution or an assisted living facility shall not have a direct financial interest in nursing care institutions or assisted living facilities.

E. A board member shall not serve on any other board relating to long-term care during the member's term with the board.

F. The term of a board member automatically ends when that member no longer meets the qualifications for appointment to the board. The board shall notify the governor of the board vacancy.

G. Board members who are not affiliated with a nursing care institution or an assisted living facility shall be appointed for two-year terms. Board members who are the administrator of a nursing care institution or the manager of an assisted living facility shall be appointed for three-year terms.

H. A board member shall not serve for more than two consecutive terms.

I. The board shall meet at least twice a year.

J. A majority of the board members constitutes a quorum.

K. Board members are eligible to receive compensation as determined pursuant to section 38-611 for each day actually spent performing their duties under this chapter.

L. A board member who is absent from three consecutive regular meetings or who fails to attend more than fifty percent of board meetings over the course of one calendar year vacates the board member's position. The board shall notify the governor of the vacancy.

36-446.03. Powers and duties of the board; rules; fees; fingerprinting

A. The board may adopt, amend or repeal reasonable and necessary rules and standards for the administration of this article in compliance with title XIX of the social security act, as amended.

B. The board by rule may adopt nonrefundable fees for the following:

1. Initial application for certification as an assisted living facility manager.
2. Examination for certification as an assisted living facility manager.
3. Issuance of a certificate as an assisted living facility manager, prorated monthly.
4. Biennial renewal of a certificate as an assisted living facility manager.
5. Issuance of a temporary certificate as an assisted living facility manager.
6. Readministering an examination for certification as an assisted living facility manager.
7. Issuance of a duplicate certificate as an assisted living facility manager.
8. Reviewing the sponsorship of continuing education programs, for each credit hour.
9. Late renewal of an assisted living facility manager certificate.
10. Reviewing an individual's request for continuing education credit hours, for each credit hour.
11. Reviewing initial applications for assisted living facility training programs.
12. Annual renewal of approved assisted living facility training programs.

C. The board may elect officers it deems necessary.

D. The board shall apply appropriate techniques, including examinations and investigations, to determine whether a person meets the qualifications prescribed in section 36-446.04.

E. On or before July 1, 2024, in addition to the requirements prescribed in section 36-446.04, the board shall require each applicant for initial nursing care institution administrator licensure or assisted living facility manager certification to submit a full set of fingerprints to the board for a state and federal criminal history records check pursuant to section 41-1750 and Public Law 92-544. The department of public safety may exchange this fingerprint data with the federal bureau of investigation.

F. On its own motion or in response to any complaint against or report of a violation by an administrator of a nursing care institution or a manager of an assisted living facility, the board may conduct investigations, hearings and other proceedings concerning any violation of this article or of rules adopted by the board or by the department.

G. In connection with an investigation or administrative hearing, the board may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, take evidence and require by subpoena the production of documents, records or other information in any form concerning matters the board deems relevant to the investigation or hearing. If any subpoena issued by the board is disobeyed, the board may invoke the aid of any court in this state in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence.

H. Subject to title 41, chapter 4, article 4, the board may employ persons to provide investigative, professional and clerical assistance as required to perform its powers and duties under this article. Compensation for board employees shall be as determined pursuant to section 38-611. The board may contract with other state or federal agencies as required to carry out this article.

I. The board may appoint review committees to make recommendations concerning enforcement matters and the administration of this article.

J. The board by rule may establish a program to monitor licensees and certificate holders who are chemically dependent and who enroll in rehabilitation programs that meet board requirements. The board may take disciplinary action if a licensee or a certificate holder refuses to enter into an agreement to enroll in and complete a board-approved rehabilitation program or fails to abide by that agreement.

K. The board shall adopt and use an official seal.

L. The board shall adopt rules for the examination and licensure of nursing care institution administrators and the examination and certification of assisted living facility managers.

M. The board shall adopt rules governing payment to a person for the direct or indirect solicitation or procurement of assisted living facility patronage.

N. The board must provide the chairpersons of the senate and the house of representatives health committees with copies of all board minutes and executive decisions.

O. The board by rule shall limit by percentage the amount it may increase a fee above the amount of a fee previously prescribed by the board pursuant to this section.

P. The board by rule shall prescribe standards for assisted living facility training programs. The board shall prescribe rules for assisted living facility caregivers that are consistent with the training, competency and test methodology standards developed by the Arizona health care cost containment system administration for in-home direct care workers.

Q. The board may:

1. Grant, deny, suspend or revoke approval of, or place on probation, an assisted living facility training program.
2. Impose a civil penalty on an assisted living facility training program that violates this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

36-446.04. Qualifications; period of validity; exemption

A. The board shall issue a license as a nursing care institution administrator pursuant to its rules to any person who meets the following qualifications:

1. Has satisfactorily completed a course of instruction and training approved by the board that:
 - (a) Is designed and sufficiently administered to give the applicant knowledge of the proper needs to be served by nursing care institutions.
 - (b) Includes a thorough background in the laws and rules governing the operation of nursing care institutions and the protection of the interests of the patients in nursing care institutions.
 - (c) Includes thorough training in elements of good health care facilities administration.

2. Has passed an examination administered by the board designed to test for competency in the subject matter referred to in this subsection.

3. Has met one of the following fingerprinting requirements:

- (a) Has a valid fingerprint clearance card issued pursuant to title 41, chapter 12, article 3.1 and has not been convicted of any felony involving violence or financial fraud.
- (b) Has provided proof of the submission of an application for a fingerprint clearance card. An applicant who has been denied a fingerprint clearance card must also provide proof that the applicant qualifies for a good cause exception hearing pursuant to section 41-619.55 and has not been convicted of any felony involving violence or financial fraud.

B. A person who is licensed pursuant to this section must maintain a valid fingerprint clearance card during the valid period of the person's license.

C. The board shall issue a certificate as an assisted living facility manager pursuant to its rules to a person who meets the following qualifications:

1. Has satisfactorily completed a course of instruction and training approved by the board that:

(a) Is designed and sufficiently administered to give the applicant knowledge of the proper needs to be served by an assisted living facility.

(b) Includes a thorough background in the laws governing the operation of assisted living facilities and the protection of the interests of the patients in assisted living facilities.

(c) Includes thorough training in elements of assisted living facility administration.

2. Has passed an examination administered by the board that is designed to test for competency in the subject matter prescribed in this subsection.

3. Provides documentation satisfactory to the board that the applicant has completed two thousand eighty hours of paid work experience in a health related field within the preceding five years as prescribed by board rule.

4. Has met one of the following fingerprinting requirements:

(a) Has a valid fingerprint clearance card issued pursuant to title 41, chapter 12, article 3.1 and has not been convicted of any felony involving violence or financial fraud.

(b) Has provided proof of the submission of an application for a fingerprint clearance card. An applicant who has been denied a fingerprint clearance card must also provide proof that the applicant qualifies for a good cause exception hearing pursuant to section 41-619.55 and has not been convicted of any felony involving violence or financial fraud.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, beginning July 1, 2021, all new licenses and certifications issued by the board must be approved by both the board and the department of health services.

E. A person who is certified pursuant to this section must maintain a valid fingerprint clearance card during the valid period of the person's certificate.

F. In lieu of the requirements contained in subsection A, paragraph 1 or subsection C, paragraph 1 of this section, an applicant may present satisfactory evidence to the board of sufficient education and training in the areas listed in the respective paragraph.

G. A license is nontransferable and remains in effect until thirty days after the licensee's birthday of an even-numbered year, at which time the license may be renewed if the licensee otherwise complies with this article and the license has not been surrendered, suspended or revoked.

H. A certificate is nontransferable and remains in effect until thirty days after the certificate holder's birthday of an odd-numbered year, at which time the certificate may be renewed if the certificate holder otherwise complies with this article and the certificate has not been surrendered, suspended or revoked.

I. This section does not apply to managers of adult foster care homes as defined in section 36-401.

36-446.05. Reciprocity; present administrators

The board may issue a nursing care institution administrator's license, without examination or with partial examination, to any person who holds a current license from another state or territory of the United States provided the standards for licensure in such other state or territory of the United States are at least substantially equivalent to those prevailing in this state, and provided that the applicant is otherwise qualified.

36-446.06. Temporary licenses and certificates

A. The board may issue a temporary nursing care institution administrator's license or temporary assisted living facility manager's certificate to individuals who are determined to meet standards established by the board and may revoke or suspend temporary licenses or certificates previously issued by the board in any case in which the individual holding a license or certificate is determined to have substantially failed to conform to the requirements of such standards during the term of the temporary license or certificate.

B. A temporary license or certificate is automatically revoked if the licensee or certificate holder fails either the state or national examination during the term of the license or certificate.

C. Temporary licenses or certificates may be issued without examination, for a single nonrenewable period of one hundred fifty days, to a qualified individual for the purpose of enabling the individual to fill a nursing care institution administrator or assisted living facility manager position. Qualifications for a temporary license or certificate shall include the ability to meet such other standards as are established by the board.

D. An applicant for a temporary license or certificate shall not have failed a state or national examination either before or after applying for the temporary license or certificate.

36-446.07. Disciplinary actions; grounds for disciplinary action; renewal; continuing education; inactive status; hearings; settlement; judicial review; admission by default; military members

A. The board may suspend or revoke the license of any nursing care institution administrator, censure or place on probation any licensed nursing care institution administrator or deny a license as a nursing care institution administrator to any person for any of the following reasons:

1. Conviction of a felony or conviction of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.
2. Obtaining or renewing a license by fraud or deceit.
3. Unprofessional conduct.
4. Practicing without biennial licensure.
5. Addiction to or dependency on drugs or alcohol.
6. Wrongful transfer of a license or falsely impersonating another licensee.
7. Unauthorized disclosure of information relating to a patient or a patient's records.
8. Payment to any person for solicitation or procurement, either directly or indirectly, of nursing home patronage.
9. Violation of this article or a rule adopted pursuant to this article.

B. The board may suspend or revoke the certificate of an assisted living facility manager, censure or place on probation an assisted living facility manager or deny a certificate as an assisted living facility manager to a person for any of the following reasons:

1. Conviction of a felony or conviction of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.
2. Obtaining or renewing a certificate by fraud or deceit.
3. Unprofessional conduct.
4. Practicing without biennial certification.
5. Addiction to or dependency on drugs or alcohol.
6. Wrongful transfer of a certificate or falsely impersonating another certificate holder.
7. Unauthorized disclosure of information relating to a resident or a resident's records.
8. Violation of this article or a rule adopted pursuant to this article.

C. The board may impose a civil penalty in an amount of not to exceed five hundred dollars on any nursing care institution administrator or assisted living facility manager who violates this article or any rule adopted pursuant to this article. Actions to enforce the collection of these penalties shall be brought in the name of this state by the attorney general or the county attorney in the justice court or the superior court in the county in which the violation occurred. Penalties imposed under this section are in addition to and not in limitation of other penalties imposed pursuant to this article.

D. The board may file a letter of concern if, in the opinion of the board, while there is insufficient evidence to support direct action against the license of the administrator or the certificate of the manager, there is sufficient evidence for the board to notify the administrator or manager of its concern.

E. Every holder of a nursing care institution administrator's license shall renew it biennially by making application to the board. The renewals shall be granted as a matter of course if the holder has successfully completed at least fifty hours of continuing education every two years as established by the board in its rules, unless the applicant has acted or failed to act in such a manner or under such circumstances as would constitute grounds for taking any of the disciplinary actions permitted by this section. The board shall maintain a log of each complaint substantiated by the board or deficiency report concerning an administrator and shall retain in the administrator's file a copy of each such complaint or report and the action taken on it, if any. The board shall review and consider the administrator's file in determining whether to renew the administrator's license.

F. Except as provided in subsection R of this section, every holder of an assisted living facility manager's certificate shall renew it biennially by making application to the board. The renewals shall be granted as a matter of course if the holder has successfully completed continuing education every two years as established by the board in its rules, unless the applicant has acted or failed to act in a manner or under circumstances that constitute grounds for taking disciplinary action permitted by this section. The board shall maintain a log of each complaint substantiated by the board or deficiency report concerning a manager and shall retain in the manager's file a copy of each complaint or report and the action taken on it, if any. The board shall review and consider the manager's file in determining whether to renew the manager's certificate.

G. Except as provided in subsection R of this section, failure on the part of any licensed nursing care institution administrator or certified assisted living facility manager to furnish evidence of having attended the required continuing education hours during the preceding two years shall preclude renewal of the license or certificate unless the continuing education requirement is fulfilled within one hundred twenty days.

H. On written request to the board, a nursing care institution administrator in good standing may cause the administrator's name and license to be transferred to an inactive list. Any nursing care institution administrator on inactive license status shall pay a license renewal fee. On written request to the board, and subsequent approval by the board, a nursing care institution administrator on inactive license status may resume active license status on meeting twenty-five hours of continuing education requirements within six months and payment of the current fee.

I. On written request to the board, the board shall transfer an assisted living facility manager in good standing to an inactive list. An assisted living facility manager on inactive certificate status shall pay a certificate renewal fee prescribed by the board of not more than one hundred dollars every two years. On written request to the board, and subsequent approval by the board, an assisted living facility manager on inactive certificate status may resume active certificate status on meeting requirements for six hours of continuing education within six months and payment of the current fee.

J. Suspension, revocation or denial of renewal of a license or certificate or censure or probation of a licensee or certificate holder by the board becomes effective only on the board's first giving the licensee or certificate holder prior written notice and affording the licensee or certificate holder the right to request a hearing within thirty-five days of the receipt of notice. A hearing is not required before the denial of an original application for a license or a certificate. All hearings shall be conducted pursuant to title 41, chapter 6, article 10.

K. Any person wishing to make a complaint against a licensee or certificate holder under this article shall file a written complaint with the board within one year from the date of the action causing the complaint. If the board determines that the charges made in the complaint are sufficient, if true, to warrant suspension or revocation of a license or certificate issued under this article or censure or probation of a licensee or certificate holder under this article, it shall issue an order fixing the time and place for a hearing and requiring the licensee or certificate holder complained against to appear and answer the complaint. The order shall have affixed to it a copy of the complaint, and both shall be served on the licensee or certificate holder either personally or by certified mail sent to the licensee's or the certificate holder's last known address at least thirty-five days before the date set for the hearing. All hearings shall be conducted pursuant to title 41, chapter 6, article 10.

L. The board and an administrator or manager may enter into a settlement of any matter under investigation either before or after a notice of the hearing has been issued if the board determines that the proposed settlement adequately protects the public safety, health and welfare. The board shall record the terms of each settlement entered into and shall make the record available for public inspection.

M. Except as provided in section 41-1092.08, subsection H, final decisions of the board are subject to judicial review pursuant to title 12, chapter 7, article 6.

N. If the board has initiated an investigation pursuant to this section, the board may continue the investigation and discipline the person under investigation even if that person resigns from practice after the board has initiated the investigation.

O. A licensee or certificate holder shall respond in writing to the board within thirty-five days after the board serves the complaint and notice of a formal hearing by certified mail. Service is complete on the date the board places the notice in the mail. The board shall consider a licensee's or certificate holder's failure to respond to the notice within thirty-five days as an admission by default to the allegations stated in the complaint. The board may then take disciplinary action against the licensee or certificate holder without conducting a formal hearing.

P. The board may set aside an admission by default if a licensee or certificate holder shows good cause. A licensee or certificate holder who applies to the board to set aside an admission by default shall demonstrate the following to the satisfaction of the board:

1. The failure to respond to the notice of the board was due to excusable neglect.
2. The licensee or certificate holder has a meritorious defense.
3. The licensee or certificate holder made prompt application to the board for relief.

Q. The board shall not consider an application to set aside an admission by default filed later than one hundred eighty days after the board's entry of the admission by default.

R. A license or certificate issued pursuant to this chapter to any member of the Arizona national guard or the United States armed forces reserves shall not expire while the member is serving on federal active duty and shall be extended one hundred eighty days after the member returns from federal active duty, provided that the member, or the legal representative of the member, notifies the board of the federal active duty status of the member. A license or certificate issued pursuant to this chapter to any member serving in the regular component of the United States armed forces shall be extended one hundred eighty days from the date of expiration, provided that the member, or the legal representative of the member, notifies the board of the federal active duty status of the member. If the license or certificate is renewed during the applicable extended time period, the member is responsible only for normal fees and activities relating to renewal of the license and shall not be charged any additional costs such as late fees or delinquency fees. The member, or the legal representative of the member, shall present to the board a copy of the member's official military orders, a redacted military identification card or a written verification from the member's commanding officer before the end of the applicable extended time period in order to qualify for the extension.

S. A license or certificate issued pursuant to this chapter to any member of the Arizona national guard, the United States armed forces reserves or the regular component of the United States armed forces shall not expire and shall be extended one hundred eighty days from the date the military member is able to perform activities necessary under the license or certificate if the member both:

1. Is released from active duty service.
2. Suffers an injury as a result of active duty service that temporarily prevents the member from being able to perform activities necessary under the license, certificate or registration.

36-446.08. Nursing care institution administrators' licensing and assisted living facility managers' certification fund; investment of fund monies

A. The nursing care institution administrators' licensing and assisted living facility managers' certification fund is established.

B. Pursuant to sections 35-146 and 35-147, the board shall deposit fifteen percent of all monies collected pursuant to this article in the state general fund and deposit the remaining eighty-five percent in the nursing care institution administrators' licensing and assisted living facility managers' certification fund. All monies derived from civil penalties collected pursuant to section 36-446.07, subsection C shall be deposited, pursuant to sections 35-146 and 35-147, in the state general fund.

C. Monies deposited in the nursing care institution administrators' licensing and assisted living facility managers' certification fund are subject to the provisions of section 35-143.01.

D. On notice from the board, the state treasurer shall invest and divest monies in the fund as provided by section 35-313, and monies earned from investment shall be credited to the fund.

36-446.09. Violations; classification

A. Any person who manages, directs and controls the operation of a nursing care institution or an assisted living facility without a current and valid license or certificate as required by this article or who otherwise violates any provisions of this article is guilty of a class 2 misdemeanor. Each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense.

B. Action taken under subsection A shall not be a bar to enforcement of this article and the standards and rules issued and adopted pursuant to this article, by injunction or other appropriate remedy, and the board may institute and maintain in the name of this state any such enforcement proceeding.

36-446.10. Confidentiality of records; release of complainant's name and nature of complaint

A. Except as provided in subsection B, all records concerning a pending investigation, examination materials, records of examination grading and applicants' performance and transcripts of educational institutions concerning applicants are confidential and are not public records. "Records of applicants' performance" does not include records of whether an applicant passed or failed an examination.

B. During a pending investigation, the board shall inform the administrator or manager who is the subject of the complaint of the name of the complainant and the nature of the complaint if so requested.

36-446.11. Relief from civil liability

Members, employees and agents of the board and members of review committees shall not be held civilly liable for acts done or actions taken by any of these persons if such persons act in good faith following the requirements of this article. A person who in good faith reports or provides information to the board shall not be held civilly liable as a result of doing so.

36-446.12. Fees

A. The board by rule shall establish nonrefundable fees and penalties for the following for nursing care institution administrators:

1. Initial application.

2. Examination for licensure as a nursing care institution administrator.

3. A license as a nursing care institution administrator.

4. Renewing an active biennial license.

5. Renewing an inactive biennial license.

6. A temporary license as a nursing care institution administrator.

7. Readministering the state examination.

8. Readministering the national examination.

9. A duplicate license.

10. Late renewal of a license.

11. Certifying licensure status.

12. Reviewing the sponsorship of continuing education programs, for each credit hour.

13. Reviewing an individual's request for continuing education credit hours, for each credit hour.

B. The board shall prorate on a monthly basis fees paid for an initial license as a nursing care institution administrator.

C. The board by rule shall limit by percentage the amount it may increase a fee above the amount of a fee previously prescribed by the board pursuant to this section.

36-446.13. Unlawful act; unlicensed operation; injunction

A. On application by the board, the superior court may issue an injunction to enjoin the activities of a person who purports to be licensed pursuant to this article or who is engaging in the activities of a nursing care institution administrator without a license.

B. In a petition for injunction filed pursuant to this section, it is sufficient to charge that the respondent on a certain day in a named county engaged in the activities of a nursing care institution administrator without a license and without being exempt from the licensing requirements of this article.

C. For the purposes of this section, damage or injury is presumed.

D. A petition for an injunction to enjoin unlicensed activities shall be filed in the name of this state in the superior court in the county where the respondent resides or may be found or in Maricopa county. On request of the board, the attorney general shall file the injunction.

E. Issuance of an injunction does not relieve the respondent from being subject to other proceedings as provided in this article.

36-446.14. Referral agencies; assisted living facilities and assisted living homes; disclosure; acknowledgement; fee; notice; requirements; civil penalty; definitions

A. A referral agency shall disclose, in the form prescribed by subsection D of this section, to any prospective resident or representative of a prospective resident at the time or before any referral is made for care at an assisted living facility or assisted living home all of the following:

1. The existence of any current business relationship or any common ownership or control and any other financial, business, management or familial relationship that exists between the referral agency and the assisted living facility or assisted living home.
2. That the assisted living facility or assisted living home pays a fee to the referral agency in connection with the referral.
3. The amount of the fee, if determined, or a good faith estimate of the fee, if not determined, that the assisted living facility or assisted living home will pay to the referral agency. The referral agency may describe the fee as a dollar amount or as a percentage of the prospective resident's first month's rent and care charges at the facility or home.

B. After the first instance of the referral agency providing the disclosure required by subsection A of this section, the referral agency shall request from the prospective resident or representative of a prospective resident an acknowledgement of receiving the disclosure in the same manner and form in which the disclosure was delivered.

C. The prospective resident may terminate all services of the referral agency for the prospective resident at any time, including the use of the prospective resident's personal information, by providing a written or electronic termination notice to the referral agency. If the prospective resident delivers a termination notice, the referral agency is not entitled to any fee for the resident's move-in after the date of the termination notice unless either of the following applies:

1. The assisted living facility or assisted living home chosen by the resident within twelve months after the date of termination was specifically identified and referred to the resident after evaluating the prospective resident's profile and requests before the resident delivered the notice of termination.
2. The referral agency provides documentation to the assisted living facility or assisted living home that the resident communicated with the referral agency for referral services before the resident's admission to the assisted living facility or assisted living home.

D. The referral agency's written, electronic or oral disclosure shall be in the following format and, if written, shall be in fourteen-point font type:

Arizona law requires that we provide you with the following disclosure notice.

We are in the business of referring residents to assisted living facilities and assisted living homes. We will be paid by the facility or home if you move into one of the referred facilities or homes. The fee we receive from the facility or home into which you move typically ranges from (____) to (____) percent of your first month's rent and care charges or from ($____) to ($____). We (do/do not) have a current business relationship (but/and) we (do/do not) have a common ownership or control in, or any other financial, business, management or familial relationship with, (any) (one or more) of the homes and facilities to which we are referring you.

By providing us with a written or electronic notice, you have the right to terminate our services to you at any time, including our use of your personal information. If you terminate our services, we will not be entitled to any fee for any move-in you make after the date of the termination notice unless either:

1. The facility or home you choose within the next twelve months is one that we specifically identify and refer to you after we evaluate your profile and requests but before we receive your notice of termination.
2. You communicate with us before you move into the facility or home.

E. Within fourteen days after a resident is admitted to an assisted living facility or assisted living home, the facility or home shall notify the referral agency of the resident's admission if the facility or home is contracted with the referral agency. Not later than fourteen days after receiving notice of the resident's admission, the referral agency shall provide the assisted living facility or assisted living home with a written or electronic copy or recording of the disclosure made to the resident and the resident's acknowledgement of receiving the disclosure as prescribed in subsections B and D of this section, along with the date and time of the disclosure to the resident. The assisted living facility or assisted living home shall maintain a copy of the disclosure for as long as the resident is at the facility or home. The referral agency shall maintain a copy of the disclosure and acknowledgement for one year. The assisted living facility or assisted living home shall not pay any referral fee associated with a resident until the facility or home receives the written or electronic copy or recording of the disclosure made to the resident and the resident's acknowledgement of receiving the disclosure provided and maintained in the same manner and form.

F. A referral agency that violates this section is subject to a civil penalty of up to $1,000 for each violation. The attorney general or a county attorney may institute a proceeding in superior court to recover the civil penalty under this subsection and to restrain and enjoin a violation of this section. Any civil penalty recovered pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the general fund of the jurisdiction that prosecuted the violation.

G. For the purposes of this section:

1. "Electronically" includes an audio recording that conforms with the Arizona rules of evidence, that is maintained by the referral agency and that is transmitted to the assisted living facility or assisted living home and the resident or the resident's representative in a format that can be downloaded.

2. "Referral agency":

(a) Means a person or entity that provides referrals for a fee that is collected from either the resident or the assisted living facility or assisted living home.

(b) Does not include either:

(i) An assisted living facility or assisted living home, or its employees.

(ii) A resident, a resident's family member or a patron of an assisted living facility or assisted living home who refers a prospective resident to an assisted living facility or assisted living home and receives a discount or other remuneration from the assisted living facility or assisted living home.

36-446.15. Assisted living facility caregivers; training and competency requirements; medication administration; testing

A. Notwithstanding any other law, a person who successfully completes the training and competency requirements developed by the Arizona health care cost containment system administration for in-home direct care workers satisfies the training requirements for assisted living facility caregivers, except for medication administration training required by the assisted living facility caregiver's scope of practice.

B. An individual who meets the requirements specified in subsection A of this section and who registers for a medication administration examination is required to take and successfully complete only the part of the assisted living facility caregiver examination that covers the subject of medication administration.

C. The testing of an individual for medication administration competency:

1. Shall be conducted in accordance with the testing standards adopted by the board.

2. May be conducted by a training school approved by the board or by the assisted living facility that provided the training for the individual.

36-446.16. Assisted living facility caregivers; training requirements; board standards; definition

A. Except as provided in section 36-446.15, an individual shall successfully complete either of the following requirements for certification as an assisted living facility caregiver:

1. Both of the following:

(a) Sixty-two hours of on-the-job training under the direct supervision of any of the following health professionals:

(i) A physician who is licensed pursuant to title 32, chapter 13 or 17.

(ii) A registered nurse practitioner, registered nurse or licensed practical nurse who is licensed pursuant to title 32, chapter 15.

(iii) A pharmacist who is licensed pursuant to title 32, chapter 18.

(iv) A physician assistant who is licensed pursuant to title 32, chapter 25.

(v) A certified assisted living facility manager with at least five years of experience. Only thirty-one of the sixty-two hours of on-the-job training may be under the direct supervision of a certified assisted living facility manager.

(b) Pass the board-required examination with a score of at least seventy-five percent.

2. The board's required curriculum and examination for assisted living facility caregiver certification.

B. The board shall prescribe standards by rule for the on-the-job training prescribed in subsection A, paragraph 1, subdivision (a) of this section.

C. For the purposes of this section, "direct supervision" means the on-site, in-view observation and guidance of a caregiver who is in training by the supervising health professional.
